

Carmen Apetrei Flöer, Learning Coach

Carmen Aetrei Flöer, studied Economics and Business Development in Romania and Germany and has Bachelor Degrees in Marketing and Event Management. Also worked as economics journalist in written media and have a Economic Media Practitioner Diploma. Since more than 10 years she is an entrepreneur with Businesses in Germany in Romania. Carmen has experience in building new businesses and teams, adapting to new emerging markets, supporting changes and leaders development. In March 2012 she became a LIM Learning Coach and is a team member of LIM Eastern Europe. In the last year she worked also as volunteer learning coach in a school project in Romania, helping schools understand the importance of changes, team work, leadership, and making the difference by taking action in a stuck old system.

Carmen's strengths include being results-oriented, understanding and motivating teams, developing businesses, having cross-cultural communication skills. Her special interest, experience and capability lies in learning new things, understanding and changing old and not working ones, bringing people together and motivating them to work in teams on common goals.

Areas of capability include:

- ⚙ Team Development
- ⚙ Action Reflection Learning
- ⚙ Organizational Change Management
- ⚙ Business development
- ⚙ Marketing and cross- cultural Communication
- ⚙ Investment
- ⚙ Languages Romanian, English, German, French

We develop your leaders while they develop your business.