

Julieta Riberos de Castro, Learning Coach

Julieta has more than 30 years professional experience in management roles in well recognised national and international organisations. She has experience as Director of Human Resources Consultancy Services at PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) Colombia for more than 15 years and she has been working exclusively as an Executive Coach for the past 3 years at individual and team levels. Currently she works as a Senior Consultant for LIM.

Julieta has led several complex organizational change programmes. She has extensive experience as a trainer and has led multiple management skills development programmes. Julieta led the Management Skills Academy of PwC. Julieta has led multiple coaching projects for competency development and performance coaching, as well as team coaching.

Julieta has led competency models, executive selection and compensation and assessment centres projects. She has also led strategic alignment and processes improvement projects to further develop talent management initiatives and enhance performance indicators. During her career Julieta has worked within different industries.

Julieta studied Psychology at the Colombian National University and has a MBA, Specialisation in Human Resources Management at Andes University. She is a fellow alumni of the Executive Management programme at the same University. She is an International Individual and Team Coach certified by the ICC (International Coaching Community). Julieta has been teacher at Andes , Javeriana and La Salle Universities, and she has also participated in multiple Forums in HR issues. She is also fellow member of the Academic Committee of ACRIP (Human Resource National Association) and the Editorial Committee of the “Man and work” magazine; for which she has participated writing multiple articles. Julieta is also the Vice-President of the National Coaching Association “Ancoach”.

Areas of capability include:

- ⚙ Executive Coaching
- ⚙ Leadership Development
- ⚙ Organization Change Management
- ⚙ Team Development
- ⚙ Human Resources Consulting