

Joyce Chen

Vancouver, Canada, PCC & ACTC
Certified Coach
Shared Leadership Team Coach
Executive Coach

Joyce Chen is a leadership development consultant, facilitator, university lecturer, executive coach, and a LIM Shared Leadership Team Coach. She holds a PCC certification with ICF and is one of the pioneers to receive ICF ACTC (Advanced Certificate for Team Coaching).

Joyce has over 20 years of diverse corporate management experience in cross-cultural settings in Asia, Europe, and North America. She joined LIM in 2014 and translated Ernie Turner's (the founder of LIM) book, Gentle Interventions for Team Coaching, into Chinese. Her passion is to help people discover their potential and to see business transformed as their people have been transformed.

Joyce specializes in leadership and team development and has facilitated over hundreds of workshops with multinational companies and NGOs. She holds a MBA degree with University of Geneva. In 2020, she worked with multiple international organizations such as ITU, WHO, and WEF in Geneva, on UN SDG projects to promote key SDG dialogues between public, private sectors, and civil societies.

Joyce enjoys traveling, outdoor activities, and is passionate about public welfare and charity work.

Areas of capability and interest include:

- Executive Coaching
- Leadership Development
- Teams and Team Coaches Development
- Organizational Alignment Coaching and Culture Change
- Action Reflection Learning®
- Shared Leadership Development
- Languages: English, Chinese Mandarin

Contact Joyce at: joyce.coach@qq.com

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/joyce-chen-faith-hope-love/>